

made in the Cape & Islands

THERE'S ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW TO discover in the Cape and Islands, and there is no better way to keep the memory of this picturesque state alive than with a handcrafted treasure from a local artisan. Whether you're looking for a bridesmaids gift or a favor, there's a locally-made item for you. With so many choices, it can be hard to narrow things down — to help get you started, we offer this list of some of our new favorites.

1 Sealu of South Shore's ornaments, made out of items collected from Cape Cod's shores, make unique gifts for guests, family, and friends. Each ornament is made to order and inspired by the ocean's beauty. {sealu.com}

2 Brookline Pewtersmith's Martha's Vineyard paperweight is a unique and memorable gift for guests and can be monogrammed and specialized. The pewter is cold-struck from a handmade die and is lead free. {brooklinepewtersmith.com}

3 Give the gift of Truro Vineyards' Cranberry Red, a blend of fresh, bold Beaujolais and real Cape Cod cranberries. Your guests will love the distinctive flavor, which is delicious paired with any wedding-day feast. Comes in a decorative lighthouse bottle. {trurovineyardsofcapecod.com}

4 Do it yourself with homemade wedding favors! Find a small bottle that looks as if it could have been found along the shores of the Cape, Nantucket, or Martha's Vineyard, and fill it with gourmet salt. An easy and adorable DIY gift any bride and groom can create.

5 Bog your guests down with the authenticity of the original Bog Beans! These chocolate-covered cranberries are made from only premium ingredients and are available in dark and milk chocolate. Bog Beans make a truly delicious wedding favor! {bogbeans.com}

6 Keep your guests on schedule with Seaside Designs' 2010 calendar. Printed on pure white heavyweight card stock and packaged in a clear jewel case, Seaside Designs' calendar will add 12 months of style to any desk. {seaside-designs.com}

7 Nantucket Gourmet's hot pepper jelly has been one of the company's bestselling items since they began offering it in 2005. It's not too hot to handle, but still full of flavor and perfect for breakfast, lunch, or dinner! {nantucket-gourmet.com}

8 Give your guests the gift of the ocean's cleansing suds with Seaside Designs Sea Glass Soaps. Each box contains 25 to 30 slivers of pure vegetable glycerin soap, colored the hues of the sea. Add seaside style to your wedding!
